Oil Seeds

At Mahabali Overseas, oil seeds are more than just an agricultural commodity—they are the foundation of nutrition, purity, and sustainable trade. With a deep commitment to quality and excellence, we specialize in sourcing, and supplying premium-grade oil seeds that meet the diverse needs of international markets.

India is one of the world's leading producers of oil seeds, and Mahabali Overseas proudly bridges this rich agricultural heritage with global demand. Our oil seeds are carefully procured from trusted farms and growing regions known for their fertile soil, favorable climate, and traditional farming expertise. Each seed reflects our promise of authenticity, freshness, and superior quality.

We deal in a wide range of oil seeds including sesame seeds, peanuts, mustard seeds, Castor seeds, and other specialty oil seeds, selected through stringent quality checks. From the initial stage of sourcing to cleaning, grading, and packaging, every step is carried out under strict supervision to ensure purity, uniformity, and high oil content.
